PREAMBLE

The Promotion of Access to Information Act No. 2 of 2000, (“the Act”) came into operation on 23 November 2001. Section 51 of this Act requires that we as a private body compile a manual giving information to the public regarding the procedure to be followed in requesting information from us for the purpose of exercising or protecting rights.

INTRODUCTION TO THIS PRIVATE BODY

The Association was established in 1993 to administer the Sectional Title Scheme known as Helderberg Village. The Association is registered in South Africa as a Non Profit Company (NPC). Membership of the Association is made up of all owners of dwelling units in the six Bodies Corporate that make up the Village, namely Helderberg Village, Bredell, Triangle, Vredenburg, 13966 and 13967. The vision of the Association is to maintain and / or enhance the status of the Village as the retirement residential estate of preference for persons who are mature of age, but are young at heart.

We as a private body have compiled this manual, not only to comply with the provisions of the Act, but to foster a culture of transparency and accountability in our environment and to ensure that members of the public have effective access to information in our possession which will assist them in the exercise and protection of their rights.

Inside these pages you will be able to view the categories of information which we possess. You will also be shown the correct procedure to follow should you require access to any of this information.

A copy of this manual is also available on our website www.helderbergvillage.org.za

SECTION B – THE OFFICIAL GUIDE

Section 10 of the Act requires the South African Human Rights Commission (SAHRC) to publish a Guide containing information reasonably required by a person wishing to exercise or protect any right in terms of this Act.

The Guide will contain the following information:

1. The objects of the Act;
2. Particulars of the information officer of every public body;
3. Particulars of every private body as are practicable;
4. The manner and form of a request for access to information held by a body;
5. Assistance available from both the information officers and the Human Rights Commission in terms of this Act;
6. All remedies in law regarding acts, omissions, rights and duties, including how to lodge an internal appeal and a court application;
7. Schedules of fees to be paid in relation to requests for access to information; and
8. Regulations made in terms of the Act.

Copies of this Guide will be available as soon as it is published by the SAHRC. Enquiries regarding the Guide can be addressed to the SAHRC, the contact details of which are as follows:
